Customers may update their information by logging into their account.

Use of UTC Services. Customers and others using our Services, such as retailers, distributors, freight forwarders, manufacturers, and logistics service providers, may collect information they need for their supply chain and trade logistics. Certain customers, such as insurance brokers or agents, may also collect certain information that may be regarded as sensitive in certain jurisdictions. We rely on such customers to obtain any required consents, or to have another legally sufficient legitimate basis for such collection if applicable.

Communications. Personal information may be collected, such as name, email address, and other information, when provided in any communications, whether via email, social media, phone or otherwise, including for support-related questions.

Surveys and Research. We may collect personal information from anyone participating in research and surveys.

Compelled Disclosures: UTC may be required to disclose personal Data in response to lawful requirements by public authorities, including to meet the national security or law enforcement requirements.

USE OF INFORMATION: UTC may use the information, including personal information, collected in connection with the Services for the purpose of providing the Services to our customers, as well as for supporting our business functions, such as fraud prevention, marketing, analytics and legal functions and other legitimate purposes. Our customers may use such information in connection with their use of our Services.

To the extent permitted by applicable law and, for customer data, as permitted by our customer agreements, we may use information collected in connection with our Services:

- To operate the UTC Services and provide support.

- To fulfill customer requests, such as to create a UTC Services account or complete customer purchases.
- To communicate with our customers; to inform customers and users of products, programs, services and promotions.
- To send customers information regarding the UTC Services and issues specifically affecting UTC Services
- To respond to reviews, comments, or other feedback provided to us.
- To support and personalize our Services, websites, mobile services, and advertising.
- To protect the security and integrity of our Services, content, and our business.
- To provide support; for other business purposes, such as benchmarking, data analysis, audits, developing new products, enhancing the UTC Services, facilitating product, software and applications development, improving our services, conducting research, analysis, studies or surveys, and identifying usage trends.

To meet our contractual requirements, to comply with applicable legal or regulatory requirements and our policies, to protect against criminal activity, claims and other liabilities.

For any other lawful purpose for which the information is provided.

We may use, process, transfer, and store any data in an anonymous, aggregated manner. We may combine personal information with other information, collected online and offline, including information from third party sources.

In addition, we, and customers using our Services, may also use cookies and other tracking technologies such as beacons, tags, scripts and other similar technologies, including cross-device tracking. The purposes of such use may include benchmarking, metrics, analytics, quality assessment and other lawful purposes. Please visit our Cookies Policy for more information on these practices.

We, and our customers, may also use information in other ways with consent or as permitted by applicable law.

Aggregate Information. To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may use, process, transfer, and store any data about individuals and about customers or partners in an anonymous (or pseudonymous) and aggregated manner. We may combine personal information with other information, collected online and offline, including information from third-party sources. We may also use information in other ways with consent or as permitted by applicable law. By using the UTC Services, our customers and partners agree that we are hereby licensed to collect, use, share and store anonymized (or pseudonymized) aggregated data collected through the UTC Services for benchmarking, analytics, metrics, research, reporting, machine learning and other business purposes.

Automated Decisions. To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may collect data in an automated manner and make automated decisions, including using machine learning algorithms, about individual users of the UTC Services in order to provide or optimize the UTC Services offered and/or delivered, for security or analytics purposes, and for any other lawful purpose. To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may use automated decisions, for example, to display advertisements and offers based on the individual's preferences.

SHARING OF INFORMATION: To the extent permitted by applicable law, UTC may share and disclose information, including personal information, as set forth below:

- Customers. We may share information with our customers and their service providers and other platforms that may assist those customers.
- Affiliates and Agents. We may share information with our affiliates or any business partners or agents acting on our behalf.
- Service Providers. We may share information with our service providers, agents, vendors and other third parties we use to support and advertise the UTC Services and our business. We share personal information with such third parties to the extent necessary to provide services to us, and pursuant to binding contractual obligations.
- Advertising and Marketing. To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may share information with third parties for marketing, advertising, promotions, contests, or other similar purposes. If required by applicable law, we will share such data for advertising and marketing purposes only in an aggregate, anonymous, and de-identified manner.
- Mergers, Acquisitions, Divestitures. We may share, disclose or transfer information to a buyer, investor, new affiliate, or other successor in the event UTC, or any affiliate, portion, group or business unit thereof, undergoes a business transition, such as a merger, acquisition, consolidation, reorganization, divestiture, liquidation or dissolution (including bankruptcy), or a sale or other transfer of all or a portion of any assets of UTC or any affiliates or during steps in contemplation of such activities (e.g., negotiations and due diligence).
- Law Enforcement and National Security. We may share information with legal, governmental, or judicial authorities, as instructed or required by those authorities or applicable laws, or to comply with any law or directive, judicial or administrative order, legal process or investigation, warrant, subpoena, government request, regulatory request, law enforcement or national security investigation, or as otherwise required or authorized by law.
- Protection of Rights, Property or Safety. We may also share information if, in our sole discretion, we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property or safety of any person, or if we suspect fraud or other illegal activity,

UTC may also disclose personal data for other purposes or to other third parties when an individual has consented to or requested such disclosure, or where a customer has obtained permission from such individual, or where such disclosure is otherwise legally permitted for legitimate business purposes, and, for customer data, only with such customer's authorization or otherwise in accordance with UTC's agreement with such customer.

DATA RETENTION: To the extent permitted by applicable law, we may retain information for as long as the account of the customer for whom we collected the information is active, for at least twenty-four (24) months thereafter, or as long as is reasonably necessary to provide the UTC Services or as needed for other lawful purposes. We may retain cached or archived copies of information. We may retain anonymized or pseudonymized, aggregated data indefinitely, to the extent permitted under applicable law. We may be required to retain some data for a longer period of time because of various laws and regulations or because of contractual obligations. We also will retain information as long as reasonably necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes and enforce our agreements.

CHILDREN'S PRIVACY: The UTC Services are not intended for children under 13 years of age (and for European residents, for children under 16 years of age per our European Privacy Policy). We do not knowingly collect information from children under the age of 13 (or, for European residents, under 16). If we learn we have collected or received personal information from a child without verification of parental consent, we will delete that information. If you believe we might have any information from or about a child, please contact us as set forth below.

CHOICES AND OPT-OUT: To the extent required by applicable law, or in our discretion otherwise, we will allow our customers, partners and other individuals to limit use and sharing of personal information that complements our services. If you have questions about your choices or concerns about use or sharing of your personal information, please contact us as set forth below.

Please note that these choices do not apply to communications primarily for the purpose of administering order completion, contracts, support, product safety warnings, driver updates, or other administrative and transactional notices.

If a customer, partner or an individual no longer wishes to receive marketing-related communications from us, they may opt out by following the "unsubscribe" instructions in the latest such message received or by contacting us as indicated below.

SECURITY: The security of personal information that UTC collects and that is collected using our Services is important to us. To prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, to maintain data accuracy, and to ensure the appropriate use of the information, UTC utilizes appropriate physical, technical and administrative procedures to safeguard the information we collect. Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or data storage system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Therefore, despite our efforts, we cannot guarantee its absolute security. We do not warrant or represent that personal information about you will be protected against loss, misuse, or alteration by third parties.

Where required under applicable law or by contract, we will notify the appropriate parties of any loss, misuse or alteration of personal information that may affect the affected individuals so that such parties or individuals can take the appropriate actions for the due protection of your rights. If such personal information is information of a UTC customer, we will notify such customer and coordinate with them regarding any notices to particular individuals.

THIRD PARTY LINKS: The UTC Services may provide links to third-party websites for convenience and informational purposes only. If you access those links, you will leave the UTC Services and be subject to the privacy policy of those companies. UTC does not control those sites or services and we encourage you to review their privacy practices before submitting any personal information. We do not endorse or make any representations about third-party websites or other services.

INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS: The UTC Services may be provided using resources and servers located in various countries around the world, including the United States and other countries. Therefore, personal information about individuals or customers may be transferred, processed and stored outside the country where the UTC Services are used, including to countries outside the European Union ("EU"), European Economic Area ("EEA") or Switzerland, where the level of data protection may not be deemed adequate by the European Commission.

CALIFORNIA PRIVACY RIGHTS: Under California's "Shine the Light" law, California residents who provide personal information in obtaining products or services for personal, family or household use may be entitled to request and obtain from us, once per calendar year, information about customer information we have shared, if any, with other businesses for such other businesses' own direct marketing uses. If applicable, this information would include the categories of resident information and the names and addresses of those businesses with which we shared such resident information for the immediately prior calendar year. To obtain this information, please contact us as indicated below. Please include sufficient personal identification information so that we can process the request, including that you are a California resident.

CANADIAN RESIDENTS: Canadian residents may have additional rights under Canadian law.

You, and we, confirm that it is our wish that this document and all other related documents be drawn up in English. Tous les parties reconnaissent avoir exigé la rédaction en anglais du présent document ainsi que tous les documents qui s'y rattachent.

EMPLOYEES AND CONTRACTORS; JOB APPLICANTS: Employees and Contractors: If you are an employee or contractor of UTC, please contact the Human Resources Department for our privacy policy for employees and contractors. This Privacy Policy is separate from our internal privacy policy for employees and contractors.

Job Applicants: In connection with a job application or inquiry, you may provide us with data about yourself, including your educational background or résumé and other information, including your ethnicity where required or permitted by law. We may use this information throughout the UTC affiliated entities for the purpose of employment consideration. We may keep the information for future consideration unless you direct us not to do so.

Commitment: UTC commits to cooperate with EU data protection authorities (DPAs) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) and comply with the advice given by such authorities with regard to human resources data transferred from the EU and Switzerland in the context of the employment relationship.

QUESTIONS, COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTES : In compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles, UTC commits to resolve complaints about our collection or use of your personal information. EU and Swiss individuals with inquiries or complaints regarding our Privacy Shield policy should first contact UTC at:

UTC Overseas Inc.

Attn: Privacy/Data protection Officer
16825 Northchase Drive, Suite 1000
Houston, TX, 77060

Tel : +1(201)270-4629

Email : privacy@utcoverseas.com

If you are in the European Union, European Economic Area or Switzerland, please see our European Privacy Policy for additional contact information. All complaints will be evaluated and a reply will be sent as soon as appropriate.

CLASS ACTION WAIVER: YOU AND WE AGREE THAT EACH MAY BRING CLAIMS AGAINST THE OTHER ONLY IN YOUR OR OUR INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Except as otherwise expressly provided above, or in our European Privacy Policy or otherwise required by applicable law, you agree that the exclusive jurisdiction of any actions arising out of, relating to, or in any way connected with, this Privacy Policy, shall be in the state or federal courts, as applicable, located in the City of Houston, TX or NY/NJ. Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to this Privacy Policy or the collection, use, storage or transfer of any of your information or data, including, but not limited to, the arbitrability of the matter or the formation, interpretation, scope, applicability, termination, or breach of this Privacy Policy, shall be referred to and finally determined by arbitration in accordance with the JAMS Streamlined Arbitration Rules and Procedures, or JAMS International Arbitration Rules, if the matter is deemed “international” within the meaning of that term as defined in the JAMS International Arbitration Rules. The arbitration shall be administered by JAMS, shall take place before a sole arbitrator, and shall be conducted in Houston, Texas. If the JAMS International Arbitration Rules apply, the language to be used in the arbitral proceedings will be English. Judgment upon the arbitral award may be entered by any court having jurisdiction. This section shall apply to and require arbitration of all disputes, controversies, and claims, regardless of whether such disputes, controversies, or claims concern a single individual, entity, or other person, multiple individuals, entities, or other people, or classes of individuals, entities, or other people. You hereby consent to receive service of process by electronic means or social media to the extent allowed by the applicable court. This constitutes express agreement of the parties regarding your consent pursuant to United States Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5(b)(2)(E) and any applicable state (or other jurisdiction) equivalent.

UPDATES AND CHANGES: We may update this Privacy Policy at any time in our sole discretion to reflect changes to our information and privacy practices by posting a revised version of this Privacy Policy on this page or in the UTC Services, or with any notice to individual users if required by applicable law. Continued use of the UTC Services after any such modifications constitutes acceptance to any such modified Privacy Policy. We encourage periodic review of this page for the latest information on our privacy practices. The date of last revision is shown at the top of this Privacy Policy.

LIABILITY: If you suffer damage as a result of any breach of the obligations referred to in this Privacy Policy you may be entitled to receive compensation for the damage suffered.

ONWARD TRANSFER LIABILITY: UTC will process data for the limited and specified purposes consistent with the consent provided by an individual and if UTC makes a determination that it can no longer meet this obligation UTC shall cease processing the data and take reasonable and appropriate steps to remediate. When transferring personal data to a third party acting as an agent, UTC shall:

- transfer such data only for limited and specified purposes
- ascertain that the agent is obligated to provide at least the same level of privacy protection as is required by the Principles
- take reasonable and appropriate steps to ensure that the agent effectively processes the personal information transferred in a manner consistent with the organization's obligations under the Principles;
- require the agent to notify the organization if it makes a determination that it can no longer meet its obligation to provide the same level of protection as is required by the Principles
- upon notice, including under
- take reasonable and appropriate steps to stop and remediate unauthorized processing;
- provide a summary or a representative copy of the relevant privacy provisions of its contract with that agent to the Department upon request.

EUROPEAN PRIVACY POLICY

The following European Privacy Policy applies to residents of the European Union. Personal Data and Processing. For the purposes of this European Privacy Policy:

“Personal Data” means “any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of such natural person”; and

“Processing” means “any operation or set of operations which is performed on Personal Data or on sets of Personal Data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organization, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.”

EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Notice. UTC complies with the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the collection, use, and retention of personal information transferred from the European Union and Switzerland to the United States. UTC has certified to the Department of Commerce that it adheres to the Privacy Shield Principles. If there is any conflict between the terms in this privacy policy and the Privacy Shield Principles, the Privacy Shield Principles shall govern. To learn more about the Privacy Shield program, and to view our certification, please visit <https://www.privacyshield.gov/>. Our certification is available here. We may also process personal data submitted relating to individuals in Europe via other compliance mechanisms, including use of the European Union Standard Contractual Clauses.

Purposes and Legal Bases for Processing Personal Data. UTC Processes data for the purposes as set forth in our UTC Privacy Policy, including to provide the UTC Services and as explained in the Use of Information and Sharing of Information sections. To fulfill these purposes, UTC may access data, including Personal Data, to provide the UTC Services, to correct and address technical or service problems, or in response to contractual requirements. Please see our UTC Privacy Policy Information We May Collect and Data

Retention sections for additional details on how we collect, use, disclose and share data, make automated decisions, and retain data, including Personal Data, about individual users or customers.

Our legal bases for the processing of Personal Data are: (i) consent and/or (ii) any other applicable legal bases, such as our legitimate interest in engaging in commerce, supporting internal business functions, offering products and services of value to the customers of the UTC Services, preventing fraud, ensuring information and network security, direct marketing and advertising, and complying with industry practices.

Additional Rights for European Residents. Residents of the EU or a country following substantially similar legislation regarding the protection of personal data, may have one or more of the following additional rights:

Access. To request a copy of the Personal Data we have collected about you by contacting us.

Rectification & Erasure. To request that we rectify or delete any of the Personal Data about you that is incomplete, incorrect, unnecessary or outdated. They will be deleted as soon as they are no longer required for the purpose for which they were collected. Our portal does not allow erasure of any shipment information, including the contact details of the people involved for that transaction. Although it does not store any exclusive personal data, it still has your contact information while dealing with the transaction. User accounts can be deleted wherever possible and disabled where it is not possible to delete. We are still working with vendors on the impact of deleted data as laws in countries needs the data to be available from 5-7 years.

Encryption: The transmission of data and emails via the internet is generally not encrypted completely however we use SSL layer with 2048 bit encryption where possible. Transfer of data between the offices is all through IPsec secured VPN tunnel with encryption.

Objection. To object, at any time, to Personal Data about you being Processed for direct marketing purposes.

Maps: UTC embeds third-party maps to track the shipments transported across the world as well as the computer information used to track by the end user.

Restriction of Processing. To request restriction of Processing of Personal Data about you for certain reasons, such as, for example, if you consider Personal Data about you collected by us to be inaccurate or you have objected to the Processing and the existence of legitimate grounds for Processing is still under consideration.

Data Portability. To request and receive the Personal Data we have collected about you in a commonly used and machine-readable form.

Right to Withdraw Consent. If Personal Data about you is processed solely based on your consent and not for any other legitimate interest, to withdraw your consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of our Processing based on such consent before it was withdrawn, including processing related to existing contracts for our products and services.

Right to Lodge a Complaint with a DPA. If you believe our Processing of Personal Data about you is inconsistent with the applicable data protection laws, to lodge a complaint with your local supervisory data protection authority (“DPA”).

Commitment: UTC commits to cooperate with EU data protection authorities (DPAs) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) and comply with the advice given by such authorities with regard to human resources data transferred from the EU and Switzerland in the context of the employment relationship.

To exercise any of the above listed rights, please contact us as set forth below and provide sufficient details so that we can respond appropriately. We will process any requests in accordance with applicable law and within a reasonable period of time. We may need to verify the identity of the individual submitting a request before we can address such request. Because UTC has limited ability to access data our customers collect and process through the UTC Services, and because such customers generally have the direct relationship with individuals from whom they collect data, please provide the name of the UTC customer believed to have collected or Processed the Personal Data in question through the UTC Services (if applicable). We will refer the request to that customer and, if so, will support them in responding to the request. Please note that, for UTC customers, certain information may be reviewed, corrected and updated by logging into the UTC Services account and editing the profile information.

COOKIE POLICY

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files which are stored on your computer or mobile devices when you visit some websites. They enhance your browsing experience in various ways, such as remembering your preferences, displaying relevant content and ensuring pages function as intended. Want to know more about cookies? <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/>

Necessary Cookies: These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you which amount to a request for services, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in or filling in forms on our website portals.

Performance Cookies: These cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources, so we can measure and improve the performance of our site. They also help us to analyze the data and provide us information on which pages in the website are more or least popular and see how visitors move around the website.

Targeting Cookies: These cookies may be set through our site by our advertising partners(We don't have any as on May 24, 2018). They may be used by those companies to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant adverts on other sites.

They do not store directly personal information, but are based on uniquely identified your browser and internet device. If you do not allow these cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising.

Eg: LinkedIn.com, google.com, youtube.com, tweeter.com ...etc.

External Links: On our website you may find links to external websites. These are provided for your convenience, but we don't endorse guarantee or monitor products, services, or views which they offer or express. Please be aware that these websites should be covered by their own cookie policies.

Cross-Device Tracking: When UTC users use devices, we may receive information about their devices, including a unique identifier for each device along with the IP address and location. We and our service providers and third parties we collaborate with may use cross-device/cross-context tracking.

Cookie Settings: You can control how cookies are placed on your computer or mobile device by changing your internet browser settings (via the 'Tools' menu).

If you choose to block all cookies, you may experience difficulty when using some online services. Some website functionality may not perform as intended, your preferences won't be stored, and you may not receive advertisements about offers which would be relevant to your interests/needs.

You can, however, allow cookies from specific websites by making them 'Trusted websites'. Please refer to your internet browser provider for further guidance.

Please note: if you use multiple internet browsers/computers/mobile devices, you'll need to update your settings on each in order to disable cookies completely should you wish to do so.

You can delete any existing cookies from your browser, and if you completely disable cookies, we won't gather any further information, but we may still use information collected in the past.

Want to know more about cookies? The Interactive Advertising Bureau has produced a guide which explains how cookies work and how they are managed – visit <http://www.allaboutcookies.org/> to read more. All information is encrypted for security.

COOKIE POLICY CHANGES: UTC may change this cookie policy from time to time. When such a change is made, we will post a revised version online. Changes will be effective from the point at which they are posted. It is your responsibility to review this cookie policy occasionally so you're aware of any changes. By using our website you accept this policy and that we may store and access cookies on your device.

This cookie policy is published by UTC Overseas Inc., 2 Northpoint Dr, Suite 213, Houston TX 77060 on 24th May, 2018.
